VOL. VII. NO. 295.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ST. LOUIS IN THE FOLD.

At the annual meeting of the Western Jockey Club, held on December 9, 1901, the following business was transacted:

Valle Royburn, of St. Louis, and Angelo S. Cella, of Chicago, were elected members of the club.

M. Nathanson, C. S. Bush and Angelo S. Cella were elected stewards to serve for two years.

Clause IX. of the constitution and by-laws was amended so as to include St. Louis Fair Association (club department), of St. Louis, Mo., and Delmar Jockey Club, of St. Louis, Mo., as recognized meetings of the Western Jockey Club.

Meeting adjourned.

Meeting of the Board of Stewards will be held tomorrow, December 10.

The foregoing is the official statement of the proceedings of the Western Jockey Club at its annual meeting yesterday, as furnished by Secretary Kuhl. The most important point made public is the fact that Delmar and the St. Louis Fair Association have secured membership in the Western Jockey Club and that Mr. Angelo S. Cella has been elected a steward to represent the St. Louis tracks, succeeding Mr. Robert Aull. The natural result of this transaction should be that in 1902 Nashville, Little Rock, Newport and Highland Park are to race under license from the Western Jockey Club.

WOODARD & SHANKLIN'S SALE.

One of the most successful sales ever held by the old reliable firm of Woodard & Shanklin was that which was held on December 2 and 3 at G. D. Wilson's Horsemen's Headquarters, Lexington, Ky. The grade of stock was in keeping with that of such other fall sales, and while no sensational prices were realized the general average was unmistakable evidence that the thoroughbred market was never in a better or healthier condition. A great many visitors were present, including several of the big breeders and turfmen from all parts of the United States, and the bidding was nearly at all times spirited. W. C. Whitney's Jean Berand was the star feature of the sale and brought the highest price. He was knocked down to T. F. Dolan, acting in behalf of himself and Milton Young, and the speedy son of His Highness and Carrie C. will in future hold forth at McGrathiana.

Winner—B. c, by Eothen—Mrs. General Gildora.

Went to post at 1:59. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Frank Kenney was best, showed speed and a liking for muddy going and came away with ease in the stretch. W. H. Dixon ran well and was eased up in the stretch when plainly beaten. Handsqueeze ran to his mark. Those outside of the first three did not like the heavy track. Easter Time and Infallible showed early speed. Infallible hung in the stretch but came again at the finish. Carlovingian closed ground in the last eighth. Scratched—29610 Garter Ban, 107; 20533 Chanticleer, 104. Overweights—W. H. Dixon, 3 pounds; Kate Ayre, 24. Frank Kenney, show, out. W. H. Dixon, show, 4 to 1. Handsqueeze, show, evens.

Winner—B. h, by Newcourt—Malada.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Tom Collins struck going just to his liking and had things all his own way at the finish. Little Jack Horner and Sad Sam fought it out hard for second place. Little Jack Horner set a fast pace in the early part of the race, which caused him to tire at the end. He swung wide into the stretch, but by doing so secured good footing. Semicolon did not run to his previous form. The going probably accounts for this. The others were outclassed. Scratched—295712 H. S. Tobacco, 115; 29695 Master Mariner, 112; (29685) Mr. Phinizy, 110; 29569 Alpaca, 107; 2945 Sir Florian, 107; (29695) Boomerack, 107. Overweights—Sad Sam, 1 pound. Little Jack Horner, show, out. Sad Sam, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g, by Wadsworth—Glendella.

Went to post at 3:07. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second easily. Banish, in the going, was best, easily took command and won with plenty in reserve. Irving Mayor ran a good race and was much the best of the others. Judge Steadman was allowed to swerve in the stretch when coming fast. Little Elkin was poorly handled or he might have been closer up at the finish. Syncope Sandy showed speed, but was used too much in the first part of the race and tired at the finish. Scratched—296892 Swordsman, 106; 29709 Tencer, 106; 29696 Free Pass, 98; 29656 Saragamp, 94; 29708 Farmer Bennett, 92. Overweights—Judge Steadman, 24 pounds; Little Elkin, 1; Mr. Pomeroy, 24. Banish, show, out. Irving Mayor, show, 8 to 5. Judge Steadman, show, out.

29719 FOURTH RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $300. 3 year-olds and upward. Selling. (Substitute for regular race declared off.)

Winner—B. m, by Bramble—Elsie Gaylord.

Went to post at 3:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Elsie Bramble was best, liked the track conditions and was going away at the end. Small Jack ran an excellent race and hung on gamely. Aaron closed up fast when straightened for home. Cathedral was off none too well and was worn out in trying to make up ground. He was tiring at the finish. Flop ran a fair race. The others were never contenders. Overweights—Cathedral, 24 pounds; Moroni, 1. Elsie Bramble, show, 1 to 2. Small Jack, show, 3 to 2. Aaron, show, evens. Cathedral, show, out.

Winner—B. c. by King Lee—Espanola.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Marcos was skillfully handled, held in reserve during the first part of the race and came away quickly when called upon. King Tatus began slowly, but finished fast and strongly. Lingo ran a good race, but was taken wide on the stretch turn. Ben Hullum was raced to exhaustion out in front and had nothing left at the finish. Si Ah showed speed, but quit early in the race. Leenja ran a good race for a first time out here.

Scratched—29606 Rose of May, 109; 29704 Ernest Parham, 99; 29873 Winnora, 95.
Overweights—King Tatus, 21 pounds; Ben Hullum, 11; Netherland, 2; Lingo, 1.

Winner—Br. m., by Prince of Darkness—Inez, by Tension.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Eugenia S. ran a good race and finished strongly, but had to be hard ridden at the finish. Major Mansir came fast in the stretch and had no trouble securing second place. Dandy H. struck going exactly to his liking and ran a fair race, but was probably a trifle short. Frank Ireland ran a fair race. Jim W. quit badly. King Elkwood tired at the end.

Scratched—29709 Whisper Low, 96.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1900 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1900. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

OAKLAND FORM CHART.

OAKLAND, CAL., December 9.—Thirty-second day. New California Jockey Club. Fall Meeting. Weather cloudy; track slow.

Presiding Judge, Joseph A. Murphy. Starter, J. J. Holman.

Racing starts at 2:10 p. m.

Winner—Ch. g., by Iroquois—Nellie Grand. Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Native broke last and ran through the field like a flash and was eased up in the last quarter, being much the best in the going. Torsina finished fast and came away from the field in the last furlong. Fridolin dropped into third place because Clarando was tiring almost to a walk at the end. Vantine was evidently greatly handicapped by the slow going and ran in the worst going next to the rail throughout. Mission showed speed, is steadily improving and should be heard from before long.

Overweights—St. Anthony, 2 pounds. Native, show, 1 to 3. Torsina, show, 4 to 5. Fridolin, show, 2 to 1. Vantine, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c., by St. Carlo—Sunlit. Went to post at 3:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. St. Sever broke slowly and was outrun early, but closed up strongly next to the rail in the stretch and got up in the final stride. He was quite sore when going to the post. John Peters had worked fast and showed brilliant speed. He appeared to be a certain winner almost throughout and was probably unlucky to lose, as his jockey was caught napping. Dr. Scharff went on a long and losing stretch turn journey. Anna B. was carried wide, but ran in promising style, was evidently short, and should improve. Legal Maxim got away badly. Evander succumbed after essaying to outpace John Peters to the stretch.

Scratched—Old England, 107; 29537 Phil Crimmins, 106; Rose of China, 103.

Overweights—Dr. Scharff, 2 pounds. St. Sever, show, 3 to 5. John Peters, show, 1 to 3. Dr. Scharff, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. g., by Watercrest—Hana. Went to post at 3:03. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily. Herculean broke running but did not need this advantage, was unextended throughout and pulled up almost to a walk at the end. He is in rare form and particularly liked the caddy going. Galanthus, off poorly and not well handled, ran dully and as if somewhat stale. Darlene ran consistently but is of mediocre calibre and was hardly able to stand off Windward's rush at the end. The latter should win soon. Bonnie Lissak is in very bad form seemingly.

Herculean, show, out. Galanthus, show, out. Darlene, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. h. by Domino—L. W. W.

Winner—Ch. g., by Domino—Lucy Wallace. Went to post at 3:34. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Doublet was given a lucky start, showed much speed and stood a long drive in resolute fashion. Royal Flush, off badly, closed a big gap and is steadily improving. Frank Bell met with speed superior to his own in such going and could never get up. Beau Ormonde went a fast half and quit at the end from lack of condition. He has worked fast. Pompino went well throughout. May W. got off badly and showed very little speed, but the going was against her.

Scratched—29595 Sharp Bird, 110; 29712 Hilee, 107; 29699 Abba L., 102; 29699 Lou Clieveden, 102.

Overweights—Novia, 2 pounds; Captivate, 1.

Time, 27, 53, 1:34, 1:45.

Winner—Br. f., by The Chevalier—Florine. Went to post at 3:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Orleans displayed plentiful speed, was well rated in front and gamely stood off Plohn's strong challenge in the stretch. The latter was going fastest at the end and was probably unlucky to lay away too long. The winner took a winning lead on the far turn. Bangor sulked for the first six furlongs, but finished with a tremendous rush and was an eased up third. Tony Lepping tired unexpectedly after a brief rush of speed. Hohenlohe ran a bad race.

Scratched—(29715) Wyoming, 112.

Orleans, show, 1 to 3. Plohn, show, 2 to 5. Bangor, show, 2 to 5. Hohenlohe, show, 1 to 3.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A Cincinnati paper of December 7 has this to say concerning Jockey Lucien Lyne:

"Doubtless the superstitious ones of the turf have reached the conclusion that there is a 'hoodoo' following Jockey Lucien Lyne. He had another spill at New Orleans yesterday and got out with a broken rib. Lyne had his leg broken out east almost at the beginning of his career in the saddle. Speaking of the incident at the Mecca last night a turfman said: 'I happened to be at the track the day that Lyne sustained his injury by being thrown from one of John E. Madden's horses, and I never saw any one show more nerve under circumstances that could be in any way compared with this jockey's case. It was thought that one or both of his legs would have to be amputated. Before physicians could reach the lad he had recovered consciousness and proceeded to give directions to those about him as to how he should be treated. It seems Lucien's brother is a surgeon and he knows what should be done in case of an accident such as had befallen him.

"Don't touch that left leg," said Lyne, "but move the right one over just a bit farther. And, say, Bill, keep this from being written up as a serious affair. Have the newspaper fellows cut out the black type. And don't send any telegram home about this unless it turns out to be serious. If mom hears about my being hurt she won't let me ride any more."

"While the boy was talking in this strain those about him were figuring on the proposition as to whether he would ever live to walk the streets of Lexington again."

According to a report from New Orleans, jockey Adams, the steeplechase rider, will probably have his license revoked by the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. It is said that the stewards of the Washington Jockey Club have filed a complaint against him for his riding of Very Light in a steeplechase on the closing day of the meeting. It will be remembered that Very Light ran out before the first jump was made, and he was followed by Jim Megibben and Joe Leiter. It is said that the boys on the last two followed Adams, as they thought it was no start and he was pulling up. Jim Megibben was sent after the field and finished third.

The following are the conditions of a new Thanksgiving feature devised by the California Jockey Club to be run next year: The Bronze Wing Sweepstakes for colored jockeys; for all ages of either riders or horses; to carry weight for age; the association to present to the winner, in addition to the purse, a twenty pound turkey; to the last horse also a turkey; nothing to the second or third; every colored jockey to carry a live chicken and no whip; the winner to take all the chickens; distance one mile; the loss of a bird in route is a "foul" and results in disqualification; entries close one week before the race.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
